Left the World Together.

New York, Sept. 18.—A strange double suicide occurred here at daylight this morning. At that hour Gustave Koch, a well-known artist, ascended the steps to the Canal-street station of the Fourth Avenue Elevated Railroad, walked to a point in front of a second story window of No. 140 Canal street, and said:

"Yes, I have come, Emelie. Are you ready?"

The answer was not heard, but Koch drew a revolver from his pocket and shot himself in the head, dying instantly. As he fell there came what seemed an echo of his shot from the direction of the window toward which he had looked, and in a few minutes a messenger came running up, saying a woman had shot herself at 140 Canal street.

An investigation revealed the fact that Emelie Rossi, an actress, aged 19, lay a corpse in bed in her room, with a bullet in her heart. She was attired in a nightgown, with a bunch of heliotrope pinned to her bosom. It was evident she had been alone. It was not until she had been dead for some time that the cause of death was evident, except a little red spot over the heart, with a hole in the middle, for not a drop of blood flowed from the wound, and death was evidently as instantaneous as in the case of Koch.

It was evidently prearranged that they should take themselves out of the world together. The girl had evidently made every preparation for the event. On a chair by the window lay her clothing, carefully smoothed out. She had been writing, and her table was covered with small sheets of paper filled with her thoughts as she sat waiting. The hand was a neat, feminine one, and did not appear to be in the least tremulous. They were lovers, and the cause of the tragedy is supposed to be the opposition of the girl's mother to their marriage.

Emelie Rossi has been on the stage since babyhood. Her father and mother lived in Berlin. He was an Italian tenor singer of note, but is now dead. The girl's mother, who is still alive, is a German writer and novelist. The mother was ambitious for her child, and hoped she would make a good marriage. The girl came to this country two years ago, and played prominent parts in the Amberg Theatre Company.

Two Men Burned to Death.

New York, Sept. 18.—In a fire to-day two people were burned to death and several badly injured. Thirteen horses perished. It burned Nos. 530 to 534 West Forty-first street, used as a stable and cooper shop. The cause of the fire was the explosion of a pitch kettle. Those burned to death are Conrad Hoshack and Chris Tschanlon.

A Heavy Fire Loss.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 18.—A grain and cotton store-house in this city has been burned. Loss a quarter of a million.

Congressional Matters.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The conferees on the tariff bill had a meeting this morning and reported that they made substantial progress. The most important action was the acceptance by the House conferees of the Senate reciprocity amendment. It is understood the Senate increase of duties on wines and spirits has been abandoned by the Senate members of the Conference Committee. The committee now hope to report on Monday.

HOUSE.

It being impossible to retain a quorum, the House adjourned. A Republican caucus was announced to take place immediately.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day directed a favorable report on a modification of the McCrary resolution calling on the President for information respecting the killing of General Barandua by the authorities of Guatemala.

The House was the scene of excitement on the Republican side this afternoon. The Virginia election case was unfinished business, but the House itself engaged in the technical proceeding of trying to approve yesterday's journal. The Democratic members were endeavoring in every way to prevent the consideration of the election case, and in pursuance of this policy, almost all of them left the hall to break a quorum. On the question of approving the journal, a call was ordered, which brought in a number of Democrats. The yeas and nays had been taken on a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call, when the Democratic members again began to decamp.

Burrows called the Speaker's attention to it, and asked if the members present could not be obliged to remain.

The Speaker replied that the rules were intended to secure this end, and he did not see why they were not observed. Accordingly the Assistant Doorkeeper directed all the doors leading into the hall to be locked.

Hardly had this been done before Kilgore of Texas presented himself at the door at the Speaker's left hand and sought to go out into the lobby. He found the door locked, and Hayes, the doorkeeper in charge, refused to unlock it.

Successful Mining Operation.

By Associated Press.

THE DALLAS (Or.), Sept. 17.—Publicity has just been made of the fact that the First National Bank was burglarized early yesterday morning of about $10,000. The burglars had tunneled under the building to the vault, which rested on a concrete pier, and was also tunneled through. After getting into the vault they had drilled a small hole in the corner of the safe, thus making an entrance. Three weeks had evidently been consumed in the job.

The Slave Trade.

By Cable and Associated Press.

CAPE TOWN, Sept. 18.—Great excitement is caused here by the arrest of a Portuguese steamer loaded with kidnapped natives from Mozambique, en route to the west coast. The tribunal here decided it is unable to interfere with the steamer, but fourteen natives, who escaped, were declared free. The Governor referred the matter to the government at London. Meantime the steamer proceeded.

Russell of Cambridge for Governor; Lieutenant-Governor, John Corcoran of Clinton; Secretary of State, Eldridge Cushman; Treasurer, Wm. D. Tracy; Auditor, F. L. Mann; Attorney-General, Elisha F. Maynard. The platform opposes everything Republican, and especially complains that the McKinley Tariff bill does not suit New England.

Arrest of Influential Irishmen.

DUBLIN, Sept. 18.—John Dillon was arrested this morning at his residence near this city. He was conveyed on a special train to Tipperary, accompanied by a large military escort.

William O'Brien was arrested at Glangariff and taken to Cork.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Shedy and Condon, members of the House of Commons, and Patrick O'Brien and Rev. David Humphreys of Tipperary.

The charges on which Dillon was arrested were conspiracy and inciting the tenants on Smith Barry's estate not to pay rents.

The arrest of William O'Brien was made at the Glangariff Hotel. The charges against O'Brien are similar to those for which Dillon was arrested. O'Brien was immediately carried to Dublin.

In addition to those already mentioned, it is ascertained that a warrant was issued for a man named Dalton, who has been active in the work of the Land League.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The one topic in London to-day is the news from Ireland. The general feeling is of profound surprise that the Government had kept its secret so well. No explanation of the reasons of the Government's course has been vouchsafed. On all sides doubts are freely expressed as to the political wisdom displayed, but it is too early to predict the effect on the public of England.

The Parnellites, while greatly surprised, are not cast down. Their theory of the arrests at this juncture is that the Government has decided on them to prevent the departure of Dillon and O'Brien to America, because it was feared the effect of the speeches of the Irish orators in America would be to create a fresh outburst of American sympathy with Irish Home Rule, which would be of great moral support to the Liberal cause, championed by Gladstone.

"Unlock that door," demanded the stalwart Texan.

The keeper moved not, whereupon Kilgore gave a sudden vigorous kick and the frail structure flew open, and Kilgore strode out. He was followed in about the same fashion by Representatives Crain of Texas, Cummings of New York and Coleman of Louisiana, who in turn forced the lock open without opposition from the doorkeeper.

A Railroad Report.

DULUTH, Sept. 18.—Prominent railroad men here have informed an Associated Press correspondent they have every reason to believe that within a short time the St. Paul & Duluth will pass under the control of the Northern Pacific. The Northern Pacific wants direct communication with St. Paul, so that it may establish a line of freight boats between Duluth and Buffalo.

Superintendent Copeland of the St. Paul & Duluth says there is no truth in the report.

A Question of Wages Amicably Settled.

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—Representatives from the Trainmen's Grievance Committee held a final meeting with the Southern Pacific officials to-day to ratify the agreement about wages. The agreement will cost the Southern Pacific about $80,000 a year additional for operating expenses.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

A Democratic Boomerang.

An evidence of the necessity of economy in State expenditures is found in the report of the State Controller for the year 1889. Notwithstanding the resolution of the Republican State Convention pledging the party to retrenchment in public affairs, we find that the expenses for the State for the year 1889 were $116,062.06—a sum greater than has been expended in any one year since 1881, and this with the State government in full control of the Republican party, the party of retrenchment and reform. During the year 1888, the last year of Jewett Adams' administration as Governor, the total expenses of the State government amounted to $254,726.63, a sum less by $138,664.57 than was expended in 1889 under the administration of C. C. Stevenson, the Republican Governor of Nevada.—Elko Independent.

The above Democratic criticism of State expenditures for the year 1889, under the administration of Governor C. C. Stevenson is disingenuous, to say the least; and willfully misleading to compare it with the disbursements under the Democratic administration of Governor Adams in 1888; and to correct the erroneous conclusions, aside from the partisan insinuations of the Independent, we call attention to the facts in the case, which have been either ignorantly or wilfully suppressed by the writer of the above item.

First, the year 1886 was not a legislative year, and the year 1889 was; and the expenditures of the latter year were consequently augmented by the expense of the legislative session, which amounted to $51,674.15. In consequence of the legislative printing for that year the expense of the State Printing Office was increased over that of 1886 by the sum of $7,891.39.

Again, the salaries of the District Judges were paid from the State Treasury in 1889, while they were paid from the County Treasuries in 1886, and this amount of $24,155.10 cuts no figure in the expenditures of the State in 1886.

Again, in 1889 the expenses of the special election, amounting to $14,160.66, were of an extraordinary character, and nothing similar occurred in 1886.

Other unusual expenditures, duly authorized by law, were the aid to the Agricultural Societies, State and county, amounting to $17,646; the new dormitory building at the State University, costing about $17,000; the refunding of drummers' licenses of $5,689.11; and finally the deficiency claims of the years 1887-8, amounting to the sum of $19,814.38.

The sum total of the above items is in round numbers about $157,000, which expenditures were the result of the legislative year, and should not be included in a comparison of the disbursements of 1886, which was a year of no legislation.

A comparison of State expenditures of the year 1886, under the Adams administration, which was $254,726.63, in a non-legislative year, can be made more fairly with the expenditures of 1888, under the Stevenson administration, which was $265,801.17, and much to the advantage of the latter, for it included the salaries of the District Judges of $19,148.73, an item not occurring in the administration of Adams.

And, in conclusion, the comparison of expenditures could not result in any case to the credit of Governor Adams, for they were up to the full limit of the appropriations made in 1885 by a Republican Legislature; and, of the enactments of that session, only one was vetoed by Governor Adams, and that was to pay Charles W. Friend the sum of $12.50 monthly for the daily weather report from his (Friend's) private observatory.

If the present silver law should keep the price of silver at 120 or over, and never below that figure, we would still oppose it on the ground that it practically demonetizes one of the precious metals and makes gold the only standard of value.—[Elko Independent.]

Of course, the Independent would oppose anything Republican. We expect to see the Independent backing a free coinage measure yet on the grounds that the present bill led up to it.

Questionable Tactics.

The tactics resorted to by Mr. Foley's friends to get him into power would make even Barnum, the great Democratic leader, blush with envy. The methods of his henchmen are, to say the least, peculiar. While they admit Dr. Dawson's competency and integrity, they say that the old Asylum fight will be brought up. If Dr. Dawson's enemies want to bring up that disgraceful piece of business they have our permission to do so, but we should think they would prefer to bury it so deep that it would never see the light of day. Dr. Dawson has nothing to fear from that quarter.

They say, too, that if Mr. Foley is nominated he will use vast sums of money to secure his election. That declaration puts life into the campaign, and is intended to catch one or two votes in the convention. But how does Mr. Foley propose to spend this money? Are we entertaining an angel unaware? Is Mr. Foley a philanthropist in disguise? Is he a second George Peabody, and does he intend to endow a college, to erect a reformatory school or an orphan asylum? Or will he build a home of refuge for fallen women and thus commemorate his virtues, or does he intend to use it for less worthy purpose?

We will do Mr. Foley the justice to say we do not believe he will use it at all, but is allowing his henchmen to throw the promise out as a bait to catch an element that requires something more substantial than promises. Another argument advanced is that the fight bids fair to create dissatisfaction in the ranks of the party that may lead to a split. We should not be at all surprised if it would; in fact, taking the record of four years ago as a standard, we think it will.

Undignified.

It seems to us to be in extremely bad taste for State Senator Emmitt to indulge in small politics to the extent that he is. The dignity of his position should not admit of anything of the kind. A man who has been honored to the extent that Senator Emmitt has by this people should think twice before he allows himself to be made the tool of any man to get down and log-roll as he is reported as doing. We have no fault to find with any man for expressing his preference, but we deem it beneath the dignity of a State Senator to spend three weeks in interviewing delegates to a County Convention in any man's interest.

A Pioneer's Experience With Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I am a pioneer in this county, having been here 30 years. Four years ago my little son Ellery became blood-poisoned by impure virus in vaccination. His arm swelled terribly, causing great agony; physicians said the arm must be amputated, and even then his recovery would be doubtful. One day I read about a blood purifier, new to me, and was surprised to learn that it was prepared by C. I. Hood, with whom I used to go to school in Chelsea, Vt. I decided to have my boy try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and was much gratified when it seemed to help him. He continued to grow better as we gave him the Sarsaparilla, and having used a bottle is now entirely cured. As Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished such wonderful results, I recommend it all I possibly can." JEROME M. SLEEPER, Upper Lake, Lake Co., Cal.

The City Treasurer

Of Lowell, Mass., says: "The above is from my brother, whose signature I recognized. I am also glad to testify to the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and to say that C. I. Hood & Co. are considered one of the most reliable firms in New England." VAS B. SLEEPER, City Treasurer, Lowell, Mass.
